IN RE: NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE PLAYERS' CONCUSSION INJURY LITIGATION
No. 2:12-md-02323 (E.D. Pa.)

SWS-5

SWORN STATEMENT: STATUS OF ASSIGNMENT OF MONETARY CLAIM

Under the Court's Explanation and Order dated 12/8/17, the Claims Administrator is required to ask all eligible Class Members whether they have assigned or attempted to assign their monetary claim. Every Class Member must provide a verified response to the Claims Administrator.

To receive payment, eligible Class Members must complete, sign and submit this Sworn Statement to the Claims Administrator. At the Court's instruction, this Sworn Statement must be completed and signed by Class Members, not their lawyers, even if the Class Member is represented.

II. STATUS OF ASSIGNMENT OF MONETARY CLAIM

Have you assigned or attempted to assign any settlement benefits from your monetary claim to a third party, or borrowed any funds using your monetary claim as collateral? This includes borrowing money against any future claim, or receiving funds from a bank or other organization that you expect to pay back upon receipt of your monetary award.

NO

YES

If you answered No, no additional information is required. Sign and submit this Sworn Statement as indicated in Sections IV and V below. If you are represented by a lawyer, give the completed, signed Sworn Statement to your lawyer to submit.

If you answered Yes and you are represented by a lawyer:

- (a) Your lawyer must submit all documents related to the assignment or loan secured by your monetary claim, including any documents signed by your lawyer.
- (b) Upon receipt of the assignment or loan documents, the Claims Administrator will provide additional instructions on the remaining steps required to complete payment.

If you answered Yes and you are not represented by a lawyer:

- (a) You must submit all documents related to the assignment or loan secured by your monetary claim.
- (b) Upon receipt of the assignment or loan documents, the Claims Administrator will provide additional instructions on the remaining steps required to complete payment.

III. CONDITIONAL CONSENT TO DISCLOSURE TO THIRD-PARTY FUNDER

To the extent (1) I have assigned or attempted to assign any settlement benefits from my monetary claim to a third-party funder, or borrowed any funds from a third-party funder using my monetary claim as collateral, and (2) that third-party funder has provided the Claims Administrator with a signed Declaration of Consent to Substitution (a copy of which form is available on the official NFL Concussion Settlement Program Website) as evidence of its consent to convert any prohibited assignments into loan transactions, I consent to the Claims Administrator disclosing the status of my claim and the amount of my Monetary Award to that third-party funder.
